

SWEETWATER FAMILY RESOURCE CENTER
SUPERVISED VISITATION PRESENTATION
MARCH 2010

Which families benefit from supervised visitation/exchange?

Families in crisis, dealing with:

- A. Child Abuse/Neglect
- B. Parental Substance Abuse Issues
- C. Domestic Violence
- D. Divorce in which parents cannot get along well enough to exchange children
- E. Unmarried people who have children, are separating and cannot get along well enough to exchange children
- F. A parent returning after a prison term or after other separation from the child

Neutrality

- A. It's all in the attitude
- B. It's all in the details
- C. Anticipate/tell them the rules up front
- D. Just the Facts
- E. What are we here for, and what are we not here for?
- F. Bullying, Manipulation, and False Accusations

Some considerations if you're planning to start a supervised visitation program

- A. Funding
- B. The Site
- C. Security
- D. Scheduling
- E. Staffing
- F. The Supervised Visitation Network